

Pretest

What You Should Know Before Taking Dreamweaver v8 Level 3

To get the most out of this class, you should have knowledge of the Dreamweaver program. The following questions are a self-evaluation, which should help determine if you are ready for the class or should take a Dreamweaver Level 2 class or in some other way learn the basic information required. You should know at least 8 of the 12 questions.

Question	Answer
1. Why is it important to define a web in Dreamweaver?
2. A form is used to _____.
3. In what panel can you give Dreamweaver commands to manipulate layers; check for browsers and plugins; display status and popup messages; swap images; open browser windows; and preload images?
4. (T/F) You can view and change codes directly in Dreamweaver.
5. What form object is selected to set submission details?
6. In what panel are web site files manipulated?
7. What is the local folder?
8. (T/F) A style sheet is a file that contains the definitions for CSS styles.
9. What must be done to a template before it can be used to create a new document?
10. When do you use an absolute hyperlink as instead of a relative hyperlink?
11. What is the Library?
12. T/F I have experience researching/purchasing products and services from a variety of web sites on the World Wide Web.

Answer Sheet

1. So that Dreamweaver can keep track of dependent files (such as hyperlinked and image files), so the entire web with all dependent files can be copied to the web server.
2. Get user input.
3. Behavior panel
4. True
5. The Form field
6. Files
7. The folder where you work on the web site.
8. True
9. Region(s) must be marked as editable
10. An absolute hyperlink is used for hyperlinks outside the web site.
11. A special Dreamweaver file that contains a collection of individual assets or copies of assets you have created for placement in your web pages
12. True; This experience will help you understand what you are learning in class.