Cancellation Policy (REQUIRED)

Your registration reserves a space in class for you. To release your registration, you must cancel or reschedule the registration four or more working days prior to (not including) the class date to be eligible for a refund of the class fee. You may choose to send a substitute to use your registration. If you cancel or reschedule on any of the three working days prior to class, on or after the day of class, or don't attend the class, the class fee must be fully paid and is non-refundable and not transferable to a new class date.
